Headline:
The showery theme continuing.

Today:
After a rather cloudy morning, there will be sunshine and showers in the afternoon, some of these heavy. Feeling pleasant in any sunshine, but cool in the showers and breeze. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
Longer sunny spells are expected through the evening with any showers soon fading. A dry night will follow with long clear spells, although clouding over by dawn. A cool night. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Monday:
A cloudier day for many and feeling cooler, though there should be some sunny spells by late afternoon. A continued risk of some showers, but less so than Sunday. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Spells of rain in the far southwest on Tuesday, drier elsewhere with scattered showers. Further showers on Wednesday before more persistent rain and stronger winds on Thursday.
